

Dr Ankur Kumar Agrawal passed his post graduations and doctorate degree in commerce and management from the prestigious universities of India. He is having more than 17 years diversified industrial & academic experience. His areas of interest are accounting, financial management, security analysis and investment management. He has published more than 30 papers in International Journals, published more than 10 books and remained associate as key resource person in various faculty development programs and workshops.